

The heatmap displays the distribution of 1000 samples across 40 features. The color scale ranges from dark red (high values) to dark blue (low values). The top two rows are predominantly red, indicating high values for those features. The middle two rows are predominantly blue, indicating low values. The bottom six rows show a mix of red and blue, suggesting varying values across features.

cg30043621_BC21

cg39296471_TC11

cg32166299_TC21

cg34791132_BC11

cg34791127_TC21

cg39296355_BC21

cg39296354_TC21

cg39296353_BC21

cg39400085_TC21

cg40794933_BO11

